1. PRESENTATION BY THE PACT PREVENTION COALITION AND YOUTH ADVISORY GROUP

LeAnn Daddario, PACT (Prevention, Advocacy, Choices, and Teamwork) Prevention Coalition, presented a video clip on underage drinking, Exhibit A. She said in 2012, St. Johns County was voted the healthiest county in the State of Florida by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. She said one thing the report did note, was that substance abuse was an issue for St. Johns County. She mentioned there were 14 representatives from all of the high schools in the County, in the Youth Advisory Group, in which a few were present for the meeting.

(9:25 a.m.) The following members of the Youth Advisory Council introduced themselves: Jessica Justice, Gavin Canan, Will Sapp, and Molly Clukey, juniors at St. Augustine High School; Sarah Schreck, junior at Creekside High School; Frank Blumenfeld, junior at Ponte Vedra High School; and Maggie Borngesser, and Jacob Coley, juniors at Bartram Trail High School. Mollie Clukey, Jessica Justice, Gavin Canan, and Will Sapp gave presentations on alcohol and marijuana use, Exhibit B.

(9:32 a.m.) Daddario spoke about parents hosting parties at their own homes, civil fines for those parents, and enforcement details. McClure asked about funding, programs for schools, civil fines, and how to educate adults regarding hosting issues. Daddario replied that PACT was currently federally funded, which would end in 18 months. She stated there were State funds that would end in the summer of 2013, and spoke on raising funds for their programs within the County. She spoke on having a comprehensive campaign, regarding civil fines for adults hosting alcohol parties for individuals under the age of 21.

(9:36 a.m.) Stevenson spoke about being informed, what the existing penalties were for adult hosting alcohol parties for individuals under the age of 21, and working with Teen Drug Court. Daddario said that she believed there were criminal penalties for adult hosting alcohol parties for individuals under the age of 21, but she would have to get back with the Board on the detailed information. She said that in terms of drug court, PACT acted in an advisory capacity.

(9:40 a.m.) Sanchez mentioned that he worked with the PACT Coalition for about six years. He stated there was a County ordinance regarding fining the individuals selling alcohol, and also the license holder, to underage minors. He asked the Attorney's Office to check into the ordinance, and to see if it was enforced. He also mentioned candy flavored tobacco. McCormack mentioned that the County Commission had enacted Ordinance No. 2011-46, which strengthened the local enforcement methods pertaining to the prohibition of sale or service to individuals under 21.

(9:45 a.m.) McCormack said that he could explore the possibility of revisions to the ordinance to cover the social hosting context. Discussion ensued on social hosting and serving alcohol to minors under 21.

(9:46 a.m.) Wanchick spoke about the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, regarding the scores being low on substance abuse in St. Johns County. He said the County was trying to develop a strategy in conjunction with their partners to address that weakness in their health care system.

(The item was pulled from the agenda.)

David Migut, Assistant County Attorney, said under the Florida Statute, the County Attorney's Office could create an ordinance. He said if an ordinance was passed by the Commission, it would have to be sent to the Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission, and they would have to determine, by substantial and confident evidence, that such ordinance was necessary to protect public safety. McCormack said if the Board would consider the request for the County Attorney's Office to work on an ordinance, they would do so. (10:28 a.m.) There was consensus of the Board for the County Attorney's Office to work on an ordinance.

Sanchez spoke about the problems that the Hastings Library had incurred. He said since the County did not own the property, they could not apply for grants to help with the maintenance of the library. He said it would cost $350,000 to repair the building the library currently occupied. He mentioned buying property in Hastings to move the library to, and asked the Board for consensus to allow the County Real Estate Department to bid for land on foreclosed property, on Main Street in Hastings, at the cost of about $175,000. Discussion ensued on alternatives, regarding a mobile facility, and putting together a package for the Board to review.

(10:52 a.m.) Wanchick said the current Hastings Library building, with the constant cost of repairs, was too expensive to reside in. He said staff would like to do an analysis of the proposal presented by Sanchez, and bring the information back to the Board for consideration. Discussion ensued on a site for the Hastings Library building. (10:57 a.m.) There was consensus of the Board to research property for the Hastings Library.
